—Spain—Thomas O. Enders, assistant secretary for inter-American affairs, to replace Mr. Todman in Madrid.

Mr. Enders

Spain

Thomas O. Enders had been assistant secretary for inter-American affairs since June 1981. He joined the Foreign Service in 1958, and was assigned to the Bureau of Intelligence and Research, Division of Research and Analysis for the Far East. He became a visa officer, then economic officer, in Stockholm, serving from 1960 to 1963.

Mr. Enders later held assignments as supervisory international economist, Bureau of European Affairs, 1963-66; special assistant, Office of the Under Secretary for Political Affairs, 1966-68; and deputy assistant secretary for international monetary affairs, Bureau of Economic Affairs, 1968-69. He was deputy chief of mission in Belgrade, 1969-71, and Phnom Penh, 1971-73. He also served as chargé d'affairs in the latter post.

From 1974 to 1976 Mr. Enders was assistant secretary for economic and business affairs. He was appointed ambassador to Canada in 1976, serving until 1979. In the latter year he was named U.S. representative to the European Communities, in Brussels, with the rank of ambassador.

Mr. Enders was born in Hartford, Conn., on November 28, 1931. He received a bachelor's from Yale in 1953, graduating first in his class with a major in history and economics. He took a doctorate in colonial history from the University of Paris in 1955, and also received a master's in economics from Harvard in 1957. He received the Arthur S. Flemming Award as one of the "10 outstanding young men in the Federal Government" in 1970. He is a career minister in the Senior Foreign Service.

Mr. Enders is married to the former Gaetana Marchegiano; they have three daughters, Domitilla, Claire and Alice, and a son, Thomas.
